

CLASS PROPHECY

Dale Janssen, known to his classmates as the "Leading Shepard" in Austinville, just sold 2000 head of sheep; and is throwing a big party for all of his former classmates. Dale and his wife took over his father's ranch when his father left for Australia to buy some more sheep.

Did I hear the word "race?" That must be Lee Meyer and Stan Capron discussing tomorrow's big Tunis Stock Car Race. Red Rebel Meyer and his big fuel-injected Ford feels pretty sure that his car will win over Fire-ball Stan's big brown Pontiac.

Dr. Eldon Schipper has just pulled up in his sleek, new Cadillac; meeting him at door is Professor Milo Eckles from Oxford University and already it looks like Milo drawn Dr. Schipper into a discussion over parabolic reflectors. Chemical Engineer, Jim Frerichs, from Salsberry Laboratories in Idaho has joined the discussion and points out to them that the parabolic mirrors can be reflected by an astigmatic lense.

Mrs. Connie Hogelucht and Mrs. Marilyn Poppen, formerly Connie Ocheltree and Marilyn Meyer, are sitting on the davenport hashing over the good old days and talking about what mischief little junior has gotten into recently.

Here comes Marcia McLaren and Carol Dreyer, better known as "Mort" and "Dell" in their high school days. Carol is a house mother of one of the prominent boys' fraternities at Harvard. Marcia, who finally consented to a black convertible next door, is happily married and has two darling boys named Floyd and Buddy.

It's a good thing there's a nurse in the crowd. The party seems to be getting lively. It looks like Doug McKee is back to his old tricks again by spiking the punch. Well, Doug has to advertise the liquor from his store 'Doug's Jug' somehow.

Oh yes, back to our nurse, Linda Gerdes. Linda and Jeannette Meyer, who attended Northwestern College together, were real social butterflies there. Jeannette is telling Linda all about her latest romance with her music instructor Marvin Boelman, former Aplington resident. Linda looks like she could use some of those smelling salts she's been passing around.

Mrs. Les Mennen, Mrs. James Meinders, and Mrs. Ronald Jungling have just arrived with their hubbies. Linda and Les are living in Arizona where Les is working, and Linda are expecting a visit from the stork very shortly. Sharon Jungling is telling Linda Meinders about her experiences a couple of weeks ago when she had to play mid-wife to one of the cows on Ronnie's farm. Linda and Mick have just taken over the Skelly Company. Linda, who has been working as a secretary in the company, is finally going to get to sit on the boss's lap.

Over in the corner Lowell Speiker, well-known carpenter is showing the blueprint which he has drawn up for Steve and Charlene Kramer's house on Clover Dale Acres.

Mrs. Paul Koenen, the former Judy Klooster, is talking to well-known hair-stylist, Dixie Faint, about a new hair style she would like Dixie to-fix-for her next week. Judy and Paul are leaving in two months for deepest Africa where Paul will work at one of the missions.

Karen Manifold, prominent newspaper reporter, is taking notes on the recent romance between Doug McKee and Liz Taylor. Karen joined the New York Times an-big headline scoop.

Dennis Schipper, bookkeeper for Parkersburg Elevator, has just purchased. It due to lack of funds, the company was forced to sell. Wonder why? Dennis is talking to some of his classmates. Joining him now is Ardyce Everts. Since her senior picture was spotted by a famous movie producer, she has been kept very busy acting in Hollywood along-side Ricky Nelson, Rock Hudson, and Marlon Brando.

Blythe Haan and Linda Ridder, who have both become secretaries, are telling each other their methods of reducing. Blythe has just told Linda that her main secret is running from the boss.

Barbara Kalkwarf is joining Blythe and Linda. It looks like Barbara has exchanged discussing a certain class ring for something a little smaller. Congratulations, Barb!

Linda DeVries has just come into the picture which is suddenly becoming crowded. Linda is the owner of a famous coffee shop where she meets all those handsome truck drivers.

Elaine Christopherson, who flew down from New York just this morning, is now working with Warner Brothers on their new movie, "I Remember Mama." Having had personal experience with the play, Elaine is a great help in the production.

Arriving a little late are Vera Meinders and Norma Peters. They seem to be discussing the good old school days. Norma, who has joined the WAVES, is telling Vera how similar roll call in the Navy is to that they had in school.

Last but not least, we see Dennis Johnson come strolling in without a care in the world. He's still undecided about his future. However, he is the same glamorous boy and lady-chaser that he was in the Class of '63.

It's now nearing twelve o'clock, and the party is starting to break up. Doug is now giving the final toast, "one for the road."
