

Dennis Johnson

Joan and I are doing fine. We moved to Omaha about 5 years ago to be closer to our son, wife and grandchildren. We are settled in and happy here. I get back to the home stomping grounds a couple of times a year and that is always a treat. Dale Janssen and I talk occasionally and that always includes a few laughs and memorable experiences.